Nodyn | Note

Sir Daniel Lleufer Thomas (1863-1940) was born at Cwm-du near Talley, Carmarthenshire, and was educated at Llandovery College. In 1883, he entered Oxford as a non-collegiate student and was one of the founder members of the University's Dafydd ap Gwilym Society. He obtained an honours degree in Jurisprudence in 1887 and was called to the Bar at Lincoln's Inn in May 1889, holding his first brief at Carmarthen in the following December. He was appointed Stipendiary Magistrate for Pontypridd and the Rhondda in 1909, and Vice Chairman of Glamorgan Quarter Sessions in 1929, holding these offices until 1932-3 when ill-health compelled him to resign. Outside his legal career, Lleufer Thomas was a prominent figure in public life and was associated with Tom Ellis in the foundation of the London Cymru Fydd Society. He was appointed Assistant Commissioner to the Royal Commission of Labour in 1892; Secretary of the Welsh Land Commission from 1893 to 1896; and Chairman of the Welsh Section of the Commission on Industrial Unrest in 1917. He was granted a knighthood in 1931. Sir Lleufer also took an active part in the social and intellectual issues of his day, including the Co-operative Movement, the Workers' Educational Association and Housing and Town Planning, and was one of the founders of the Cardiff Workers' Co-operative Society which built Rhiwbina Garden Village. He was an important figure in the foundation of the National Library of Wales and the National Museum of Wales, and was a member of the Privy Council of the University of Wales, initiating the establishment of a Faculty of Law at the University College of Wales, Aberystwyth. His literary and historical interests were wide-ranging, and he contributed numerous articles to the Dictionary of National Biography and other publications. Lleufer Thomas received the honorary degree of LLD from the University of Wales in 1927 and was awarded the Cymmrodorion Medal in 1939. He died in August 1940.

Middelburg, Cape Colony, Natur a chynnwys Scope and content: Writer has returned to South Africa where he finds the village considerably altered and the population much larger. It is now a huge military camp with fifteen forts around it and is the headquarters of General Fruch [?]. It has been a centre of rebellion and writer says that martial law is 'very irksome and very detrimental to both business and farming operations'. He wonders whether a Colonel Owen Thomas of the Prince of Wales Light Horse [Regiment], who recently visited Middelburg from the Transvaal, is a relative of Daniel Lleufer Thomas's. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A1/8. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

Westcliff-on-Sea, Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: She is unsure whether to send her letter of congratulations to Daniel Lleufer Thomas or to Lady Thomas regarding the Cymmrodorion Medal which is to be awarded to Daniel Lleufer Thomas. After reading of it in the Western Mail, she is reminded of a speech of Daniel Lleufer Thomas's in which he stated that if there were such an award as a Welsh Order of Merit, the writer's late husband, Principal T. F. Roberts, should be among the first to receive it. She trusts that Mary [Thomas] and her husband and baby are flourishing, and wonders why Oxford did so badly in the boat race. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A3/10. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

The Times, London, Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Thanks Lady Thomas for her reply to his congratulatory letter to Daniel Lleufer Thomas, although he is sorry to hear how great an invalid her husband has become. Although the writer has not seen his father, Keyworth Lloyd-Williams, for a year, he conveys his father's regards. Hopes to visit Wales next year and he will certainly call at Hendre. He did not know that Mary [Thomas] and her husband lived at Bradfield or he would have called on them when he was in East Anglia two years ago. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A3/12. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

A3/14. vtls005504842 ISYSARCHB28	File - Letter from W. Edwards, Merthyr Tydfil, 1940, Jan 25. Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: Thanks Daniel Lleufer Thomas and Lady Thomas for their congratulations on his 89th Birthday. He is grieved to hear of Daniel Lleufer Thomas's poor health, which he thinks 'may be largely due to his life-long and too strenuous devotion to public services of many kinds'. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A3/14. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)
A3/15. vtls005504843 ISYSARCHB28	File - Letter from David Oliver, Cambridge, 1940, Feb. 18. Natur a chynnwys / Scope and content: He is grieved to hear of the sad state of his old friend, which explains why his last letters remained unanswered. The last time he saw Daniel Lleufer Thomas was in 1930, when Daniel Lleufer Thomas told him of his fear that he had had a slight stroke. Writer refers to a visit to Carmarthenshire in 1921-2, when he and Daniel Lleufer Thomas 'spent some hours together on the hill overlooking the Cothi'. The last time he and Daniel Lleufer Thomas corresponded was in connection with the letters of Eliza Carmarthen, which he donated to the National Library on Daniel Lleufer Thomas's suggestion. Writer feels he is 'but a survival of a generation that is almost past'. Nodyn / Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A3/15. Lleoliad ffisegol / Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)

Daniel Lleufer Thomas toured Canada during August and September 1902, as a representative of the Cardiff Mail. His letters home to his wife are an account of his journey on sea and land, giving descriptions of the other newspaper representatives in the party and his own impressions of Canada, its landscape and its people. In one letter [A7/11] he comments: 'This is a land of great independence, Jack being as good as his master'. There are also three postcards from Canada to Lady Thomas's mother, Mrs Gethin, together with various souvenirs such as hotel menu cards and tourist guides, and a cutting, August 1902, from a Canadian newspaper, the Western Sun, giving details of a banquet held in Brandon for the British journalists. Nodyn Note [generalNote]: Preferred citation: A7. Lleoliad ffisegol Physical location: ARCH/MSS (GB0210)
