Nodyn | Note

The Cefnamwlch estate in Caernarfonshire was in the possession of the Griffith family from at least the 15th century until the end of the 18th century. William Griffith (1721-1752) married Sidney Wynne, daughter of Cadwaladr Wynne of Voelas, Denbighshire. Their son, John Griffith (d. 1794) was the last of the Griffith family to live at Cefnamwlch. Dying unmarried, he bequeathed the estate to his cousin, Jane Wynne (d. 1811) of Voelas, who married the Hon. Charles Finch, brother to the Earl of Aylesford, who had inherited the manor of Pooley Hall, Warwickshire, from his godfather, Charles Jennens of Gopsall Hall, Leicestershire, in 1773.

The Wynne family had been settled at Voelas since the times of Cadwaladr ap Maurice (d. 1611) who was granted Voelas by Henry VIII in 1545-1546. The estate then descended in the male line until Watkin Wynne (1717-74), whose heir was his daughter, Jane Wynne (d. 1811). Both the Voelas and Cefnamwlch estates passed to their son, Charles Wynne (1780-1865), who assumed the names of Griffith-Wynne in lieu of Finch. He was succeeded by his son Charles Wynne who assumed the additional name of Finch. On the death of Charles's son, Charles Arthur Wynne Finch in 1903, the Voelas estate passed to his second son, John Charles Wynne Finch (b. 1891), while the Cefnamwlch estate passed to his third son, William Heneage Wynne Finch (b. 1893).

According to the 1873 return of owners of land, Charles Wynne Finch, of Foelas, Denbighshire, and Cefnamwlch owned an estimated 13,591 acres in Wales (all in Caernarfonshire and Denbighshire) with an estimated rental of £7,687.

Cyfres | Series EA2. vtls005742154 ISYSARCHB67: Estate vouchers,

Dyddiad | Date: 1795-1948. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

From about 1867 the estate appears to have settled on an accounting year that ran from Michaelmas to Michaelmas. Also from 1867 the vouchers are numbered in their original bundles, which are gathered together under heads of expenditure such as rates and taxes, subscriptions, estate repairs, establishment and office, game, and garden. Farm appears as a separate bundle, 1892-95, Hafodygarreg Farm, 1895-1900, Bryniau Brithion Farm, 1897-1900, and Home Farm, 1900. The series ends with the vouchers for 1917. With the exception of bundles of Voelas vouchers for 1938, 1943 and 1944, the remainder are loose items that have been gathered together. Many of the vouchers have been damaged by water and/or mould, and are frail and fragmentary. The bundles of numbered vouchers have not been examined to check that every voucher is present.

Dyddiad | Date: 1887-1894. (dyddiad creu) | (date of creation)

Natur a chynnwys | Scope and content:

The association was formed at a meeting of landowners in Chester in December 1886. Membership was open to all landowners in North Wales. Among the objects of the association, which was not to be a party or aggressive organization, were the supply of accurate information on Welsh affairs, the exposure and refutation of all mis-statements and insidious assertions, opposition to the creation of any system of land laws in Wales different from that in England, and assistance to members in the enforcement of their proprietary rights. The association was active on behalf of its members in the matter of the Welsh Land Commission. The association was suspended for the duration of the Great War (see EA 3/79), [?and never revived].
