

- f. iv Leges Howeli Dha Regis totius Cambriæ. Transcript' ex Bibliotheca Doctissimi Viri Thomæ Allen Aulæ Glocestren: Oxon.
Note in the hand of George William Griffith.
- f. iv^v The transcriber hath left many Errataes in this Booke uncorrected by studying to bee more neat then accurate. Likewyse the old Glossator hath misinterpreted som Termes of the Welsh Lawes w^{ch} are hard to bee understood now that the practice thereof is disused by y^e intervention of the English Lawes since y^e 28 of Hen. y^e 8. so noteth W^m Maurice. Comparat' ad nostrum. Magne (altered to 'Parve') nec invideo sine me Liber ibis in ævum. This booke is emendatedly to bee found in y^e second Tom. of my Corpus Hoelianum in fol. Ille Ego q[u]i Leges Digessi primus Hoëli Congessi et Bardos Ordine q[u]emque Novo dixit WM. Memoranda in the hand of William Maurice.
- ff. 1-79^v ['Leges Howeli Boni']
Howelus Cognomento Bonus Filius Cadelli Dei gratia Rex Cambriæ totius Cambros suis Legibus et consuetudinibus male vsos esse perspexit. ... ad faciendas hastas vel sagittas pro Rege. tria quæ non debet aliquis ædificare sine licentia domini. scilicet. ecclesiam, molendinum et piscariam. Expliciunt leges Howeli.
- f. 79^v Hunc Codicem cum nostro Exemplari comparavi Ego Guil. Mauricius Lansilinensis 1675.
Note in the hand of William Maurice.