

- f. iv^{r-v} Forms of presentation to benefices; form of letter to waive right to a court quando dominus remisit curiam suam domino regis.
- ff v-vii^v Pleintz en assize. Pleas, all in French, none dated, no sources given. Many of the pleas relate to religious houses (un-named). References to the manor of Foxham (f. vi) and to the forest of Bowelaund (f. vii^v); the latter is in the West Riding of Yorkshire.
- f. x^v Calendar assis'. A contents list of the work which follows.
- ff. 1-108 An abridgement of Le Livre des assises (see the 1679 edition of the Year Books) arranged under thirty-two non-alphabetical headings (listed on f. x^v) beginning Causes de disseisin de rent et de terre (ff. 1-2), Pleintz en assise (ff. 2^v-5^v), Proces en assise (ff. 6-8). The underlying text appears to have been based on reports for cases for 20-44 Edward III, although a few cases for the years 16-19 Edward III are incorporated, and also for 2 Edward II (ff. 44 and 74, both accompanied by references to Liber Asaph) and 11 Henry IV (f. 36^v). There are additions and annotation by hand A, and by some other hands, including references to 49 Edward III (f. 21) and 'tempore regis Henrici V^{ti}' (f. 108^v). Besides the regular references to years of reports there are frequent citations of '1^o liber', with folio references.
